
Toshiaki Toyama

Mr. Toshiaki Toyama is the Vice President of the Cargo Marketing Department, All Nippon Airways Co., Ltd. (ANA Cargo) Since 1983, he worked at a major Japanese freight forwarder for 7 years and joined ANA in 1990.

Between 2001 and 2005, he served as the Senior Manager of Group Business Development for restructuring the business of ANA group companies.

Prior to his current position, starting in 2005, he was the Director of Corporate Planning. At that time, he was in charge of restructuring ANA cargo business, undertaking selling all shares of Nippon Cargo Airlines (NCA), introducing their own freighters, establishment of Okinawa Hub Network, and the acquisition of Overseas Courier Service Co., Ltd. (OCS).

Since 2010, Mr. Toyama has been the Vice President of the Cargo Marketing Department and is now responsible for the marketing of ANA Cargo.