

Roger Harris

President, Amtrak

Roger Harris assumed the role of President in July 2022. Under his leadership, Amtrak is focused on running a great railroad that is safe, reliable and provides customers with a memorable experience; building for the future by revitalizing and replacing infrastructure, acquiring modern trains and transforming technology; and delivering business results that include increasing ridership and revenue to achieve train operation profitability by the end of FY 2028.

A proven leader with three decades of experience in the transportation industry, Roger has expertise across all commercial functions, including revenue optimization, distribution, ancillary revenue, strategic planning and financial analysis. Over his career, through collaboration with various operating functions, Roger has driven field-tested product improvements built around the needs of customers.

Roger joined Amtrak in early 2019 and was soon promoted to Executive Vice President, Marketing and Revenue, Chief Commercial Officer. In this role he managed the Marketing, Loyalty, eCommerce, Product Development and Pricing & Revenue Management functions, along with the Northeast Corridor, State Supported and Long Distance Service Lines.

Before coming to Amtrak, Roger served as Senior Vice President of Revenue, Distribution & Alliances for Aeroméxico, which is Mexico's flag carrier and largest airline. While at Aeroméxico, he helped transform the commercial organization and prepare the company for deregulation and Open Skies between the U.S. and Mexico.

Earlier in his career, Roger held leadership roles in commercial and strategic functions at Delta Air Lines, Sun Country Airlines, GMAC Financial Services, Northwest Airlines and KLM Royal Dutch Airlines.

Roger graduated from San Diego State University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. He earned his Master of Business Administration from the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan.

He also served on the board of directors for Universal Air Travel Plan and was a member of the supervisory board of the SkyTeam airline alliance.
