
Glenn P. Wicks

Mr. Glenn Wicks is the Founder and Managing Director of The Wicks Group. He has more than 20 years of experience as an aviation attorney and regularly represents both foreign and domestic aviation interests in a wide range of regulatory and commercial matters. He also has ten years of experience providing strategic planning and business process consulting services to U.S. and foreign civil aviation authorities (CAAs), airports, and airlines.

The Wicks Group is a Washington DC-based firm that specializes in providing legal and consulting services to clients in the aviation industry. Firm clients include: the U.S. government, foreign governments, domestic and foreign passenger and cargo airlines, airport authorities, airport management firms, aviation support service providers, corporate and private aircraft operators, aircraft manufacturers, freight transporters and forwarders, consumer product manufacturers, and others. The firm has a global client base that encompasses Japan, Singapore, Azerbaijan, Russia, Ukraine, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Great Britain, Spain, Norway, Cape Verde, Kenya, Trinidad and Tobago, and Canada, as well as the United States.

Mr. Wicks has worked extensively on matters involving airport operations, regulations, and commercial agreements. He advises a leading airport management company, a leading FBO chain, and numerous airports on a range of commercial, regulatory, and transactional matters. He recently led a project for the Singapore CAA that identified and assessed strategies for developing business aviation at a secondary airport. Previously, he directed a project for the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia CAA that involved identifying appropriate market roles for multiple airports and supporting the introduction of additional air carriers into domestic air service. Mr. Wicks currently is directing a project for the Azerbaijan CAA to enable the direct operation of its flag carriers in and out of U.S. airports, following on his successful direction of similar projects for Cape Verde and Trinidad and Tobago.

Mr. Wicks was awarded a Juris Doctor (With Honors) from The George Washington University and is a member of the Bars of the District of Columbia and Virginia. He also is a former member of the Board of Governors for the American Bar Association Forum on Air and Space Law. He regularly chairs, moderates, or speaks at international aviation conferences and is a frequent contributor to aviation industry publications. Prior to founding The Wicks Group in 1999, Mr. Wicks was an associate at a major Washington, D.C. law firm.
