

Robert A. Wirick
Managing Director - Regulatory and International Affairs
Government Affairs, American Airlines

Robert “Bob” manages the Regulatory and International Affairs group in American’s Government Affairs department. He represents American Airlines on a wide range of aviation policy and regulatory issues, participates in strategic planning, analysis, political strategy, and resolving doing business issues to support the commercial objectives of American Airlines. In his role, Bob deals with several U.S. governmental agencies including the U.S. Department of Transportation, U.S. State Department, and the Department of Commerce. In addition, he manages the company’s relationships with foreign aviation officials. Bob is an active member of the World Affairs Council of Dallas/Fort Worth and the Japan-America Society of Dallas/Fort Worth.

Bob joined American Airlines in June 1995 and has served in a variety of roles at the company including Financial Analyst in the Financial Planning Group and Manager of Revenue Accounting Systems and Operations before joining the Government Affairs group in August 2001.

Bob received a Bachelor of Business Administration in 1995 from the University of Texas at Austin. He resides with his wife and three children in Grapevine, Texas, and is a Cub Scout leader, enjoys golfing, outdoor activities, and is an avid sports fan including college football, baseball, and hockey.