

Yuji Murakami

Manager, Life-style Business Development Headquarters (Shinagawa and Large-Scale Developments Department), East Japan Railway Company (JR East)

Mr. Murakami has worked for the East Japan Railway Company (JR East) for about 20 years, and is currently the Manager for JR East's Life-style Business Development Headquarters (Shinagawa and Large-scale Developments Department). He is responsible for large-scale development projects around the Shinagawa Station area, which is one of the largest terminal stations in Tokyo and also the nearest terminal station to Tokyo International Airport (Haneda Airport).

He got his master's degree at the Graduate School of Urban Engineering at the University of Tokyo in March 2000. He joined JR East in April 2000 and has been working there since. He started his career working in the Tohoku Construction Office in Sendai. He gained experience in station improvement projects and railway construction projects.

Prior to his current role, he was engaged in community development around some of the terminal stations in Tokyo and Yokohama in 2005-2015. After that, he was promoted to Manager of Shinagawa and the Large-Scale Developments Department and also the Life-style Business Development Headquarters in 2016.
